

North Hancock Elementary

Social Studies/Science BINGO

Make math fun! See how many you can get covered! Can you cover them all?

B	I	N	G	O
Watch a BrainPOP Jr. video and take quiz or do an activity	Draw and label a map of your neighborhood, house, park, or school	Read a non-fiction book of your choice.	Create a thinking map comparing and contrasting different animals, habitats, or famous American symbols or people	Visit kids.guinnessworldrecords.com and try to break a word record
Plant a garden or seed with your family and help care for it	Find and list all the living and non-living things you find	Record what the moon looks like each night in April	Make a telephone with two tin cans or plastic cups and string and talk to someone	Make a list, drawing, or collage of community helpers
Record the daily weather for April using words or pictures	Watch a video and play a game on kids.nationalgeographic.com	Free  Space	Visit scholastic.com/learnathome and complete a daily activity	Read an American Girl, Magic Tree House, or Magic School Bus book
Find and name as many insects, birds, plants, or animals you can see	Draw a picture of your favorite animal in it's habitat. List facts about the animal on the back.	Go outside and trace your shadow in the morning, lunchtime, and late afternoon	Sort and group objects in your home into wants or needs	Build a bird nest using only natural items you find outside
Use materials at home to build a boat and see if it will float	Watch a Mystery Science video	Use materials at home to build and test a parachute	Make something fun from recycled items	Visit kidcitizen.net , scroll down to episodes and watch